← INVITE ← IDEAS

One of my Y.W. are actually in charge of my invites. I did type-set a logo to go on our new however. Here are some invitations ideas.

1. Using the fake fur you can find at a craft store. You can make the card so the entire card is orange fun fur with two large eyes that look like the Lorax. I think she might do something like a poem in the middle.
2. Take a Popsicle stick and cardstock to make one of the post signs with the arrows pointing in different directions. Have the Arrows tell the details of the event.
3. There are a ton of different Dr. Seuss invite ideas I found online. I think they would be easy to tweak for New Beginnings.

Here is the Logo I made. The first has my own ward details on it. The second is generic for anyone who needs it.
